

KAF Investment Funds Berhad (“KIFB”) is a holder of a Capital Markets Services Licence issued under the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007. KIFB became a subsidiary of KAF Seagroatt & Campbell Berhad, with effect from 15 April 2013 when the latter acquired majority interest in Alliance Investment Management Berhad. Alliance Investment Management Berhad was later renamed as KAF Investment Funds Berhad to reflect the change in ownership.

As at 31 December 2024, KIFB has 16 collective investment schemes in its suite of offerings which covers a range of product types with different risk profiles. KIFB offers both conventional and Islamic collective investment schemes. In addition to KIFB’s own sales team, KIFB funds are distributed by Institutional Unit Trust Advisers (IUTAs) and KIFB’s registered agents. The agency sales force is an alternative distribution channel that enables KIFB to serve the investing public who seek personalized service.
